Provider Relief Fund: General and Targeted Distributions

Legend

+ Additional funds will be allocated for dentists that may not have previously been eligible to receive funding through the PRF.

*A growing portion of the PRF will be used to reimburse healthcare providers for the testing and treatment of uninsured COVID-19 patients. The funding amount listed here is current as of August 10, and will be updated as providers continue to receive reimbursement.

Provider Relief Fund: Background Information

Responsible Agencies: US Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA), Office of the Assistant Secretary for Preparedness and Response (ASPR)

Purpose: According to the CARES Act, payments from the Provider Relief Fund (PRF) may be used to prevent, prepare for, and respond to COVID-19 domestically or internationally, and for the reimbursement of necessary expenses or lost revenues that are attributable to COVID-19. HHS announced that it will also use a portion of the funding to reimburse providers for the costs of delivering COVID-19 care to uninsured patients.

Eligible Entities: Eligibility criteria vary for each type of payment distribution (general distributions and targeted distributions). Additional information is available in the terms and conditions for each distribution stream, as well as the Provider Relief Fund FAQs.

Balance Billing: Currently, providers that accept PRF terms and conditions are prohibited from balance billing for patients with “presumptive or actual” cases of COVID-19.

Attestation: According to HHS, providers that accept funds must sign an attestation agreeing to the terms and conditions—specific to the distribution type—within 90 days of payment. The terms and conditions include significant provisions around provider eligibility, how funds can be used, reporting requirements and restrictions on balance billing. Providers should read the conditions closely before signing and keep careful record of their COVID-19 expenses and revenue losses, and how they use these funds.

Audits/Reporting:

- The terms and conditions for all PRF payments require recipients of allocations greater than $150,000 to submit quarterly reports to HHS and the Pandemic Response Accountability Committee. The first of these reports would have been due on July 10. On June 13, however, HHS issued updated guidance indicating that providers do not have to comply with this requirement. Instead, HHS will post information on payment recipients and total amounts to meet this requirement. HHS indicated that it will provide additional guidance to providers regarding their reporting obligations.
- HHS has indicated that recipients of one or more payments greater than $10,000 will be subject to future reporting requirements, with additional instruction set to be released by August 17, 2020.
- HHS maintains a database of providers that have received relief funds, attested, and agreed to the terms and conditions.
- HHS must submit a report to the Appropriations Committees of both the US House of Representatives and the US Senate every 60 days until the PRF is expended. This report must detail state-level totals of how funds have been distributed.
- The HHS Office of Inspector General (OIG) is required to complete an audit three years after the PRF is exhausted. The OIG released a strategic plan for this oversight, which will involve auditing PRF recipients to assess whether they met use and reporting requirements and recommending recovery of misspent funds where appropriate.
